May, June, August, September

Starting point: Rib Boat Pick-up by Öppet hav in Nybroviken, central Stockholm

Price: 17 900 SEK/person

Payment: Secure online payment when you make your reservation. A 20 % deposit at the point of booking, remaining is due two weeks before departure.

DAY 1: From the big city towards modern archipelago cabins

The adventure begins at Nybroviken in Stockholm where a RIB boat takes you on a fast and scenic journey to Stavnäs. Once there, you will be greeted by the nature guide from The Kayak Trail, who will stay with the group throughout the trip. The guide will go through the safety procedures, before the group heads out towards the charming little island of Harö. The way there just happens to be one of the finest kayak trails in the area. On Harö, you will experience the archipelago by staying close to the untamed nature, in modern cabins. Before it is time to enjoy a five-course dinner together, why not wander around, exploring the countryside or hop in the kayaks and set off on an evening tour around the small island?

At bedtime, do not miss the opportunity to peek out from the cabin and up towards the night sky. In the outer archipelago, light pollution is much lower than on the mainland, so on a cloudless night you may be able to enjoy a ceiling full of stars.

DAY 2: Kayaking towards a legendary hotel

After breakfast, the kayak trip continues towards the island Sandön and its harbour, Sandhamn. On the way there, the group will stop for al fresco lunch on the rocks. On arrival, a comfortable room awaits you at Sandhamn Seglarhotell. In the afternoon there is time to explore the island and its many restaurants and bars, or why not enjoy a traditional coffee at the bakery? In the evening a dinner bursting with flavours of the archipelago is served. The hotel's SPA will be at your disposal throughout your stay.

DAY 3: Discover Sandhamn: by bike and on foot

The last day starts with a luxurious hotel breakfast before it is time to continue exploring the surroundings alongside your guide. The island lends itself well to hiking, through quiet pine forests and across dreamy beaches. Together with the guide you will walk along the coast, visit the harbour and borrow bikes from the hotel to explore the island. Lunch is served at the hotel and afterwards you can round off the day by taking a dip in the sea, or why not book the sauna? And so the adventure comes to an end. The guide waves you off as you board the boat, which in the afternoon heads for central Stockholm and is expected to arrive just before midday.

DAY 1: Among cops and skerries

After arriving at Furusund Vårdshus, a full day of fishing and nature experiences awaits. With the Sjö & Havsguiderna you will explore islands and islets, discover a fishing spot or two and with a bit of luck you will see both sea eagles and seals. During the day, homemade lunch and refreshments are served before heading to a specially selected, secluded island. On the island, the guide from Kajak & Utliv will meet you together with a wilderness chef. Now it's time to bring out the adventurer in you and set up the tent that will be your sleeping place for the night. For the evening, a three-course dinner is prepared over an open fire, the menu based on local ingredients and the fish you caught. As the evening draws to a close, it's a good time to watch the sunset and starry skies from your tent.

DAY 2: In the middle of nature

The day dawns on the island and the wilderness chef serves breakfast on the rocks. The theme for day two is kayaking. During the day, accompanied by your guide, you will explore the waters of one of Stockholm's most beautiful kayaking areas. Before setting off, the guide will go through the safety and technical procedures to ensure that everyone feels safe on the trip. After lunch on the rocks, it's time to paddle back to the island, enjoying a classic Swedish coffee on the way. Once back on the island, a boat awaits with destination Furusund.

At Furusund vårdshus, a luxury archipelago inn, you stay in a double room with a sea view. The inn is next to one of Stockholm's main shipping routes, Furusunds trail, which has been used for centuries by sailors heading east. Over time, Furusund was transformed into a famous bathing and spa resort, and that is where the focus is still today. Why not take the opportunity to relax in the sauna or take a refreshing dip before dinner is served? This dinner is also a three-course affair and the ingredients are both locally sourced and seasonal.

DAY 3: Explore Furusund

The day begins with a buffet breakfast, served in the orangery of the inn and overlooking the fairway. Day three offers a guided walk around Furusund and a chance to immerse yourself in Swedish archipelago history. On the walk around the island, you'll stroll along lush forest paths, admire the archipelago scenery, spot sailing boats in the harbor and the island's red cottages that have withstood the elements for years. Furusund is a coastal gem that reminds you of the bygone days in this part of the archipelago. The walk is rounded off with a late lunch at the inn before it's time to say goodbye to the Stockholm archipelago for the time being.

Departure dates

May, June, August, September

Starting point: Furusund

Price: 19 800 SEK/person

Payment: Secure online payment when you make your reservation. A 20 % deposit at the point of booking, remaining is due two weeks before departure.

DAY 1: Nature and culture in the countryside

The adventure gets off to a flying start when a helicopter flies the participants out from Bromma Airport to Landsort. Once there, they are welcomed by Mats, the group's guide throughout the trip, and Åke, the Landsort expert who runs the Lotstornet hotel and Svedtilja restaurant. After check-in, information and equipment testing, lunch is served. Then it is time for the first swimrun of the trip, in the safe company of Mats. Once the first session is over, a bit of relaxation is in order before Åke guides the group throughout Landsort's unique culture and nature, its rugged cliffs, lighthouses and the island's identity as the last outpost in the archipelago. As the day draws to a close, a three-course dinner featuring the best of archipelago cuisine is served. The first night is then spent at the unique Hotel Lotstornet and comes with extensive views of the sea included.

DAY 2: Swimrun on Utö

After a breakfast buffet at Landsort, a boat departs for Nåttarö, where the first swimrun of the day takes place. After a couple of intense hours, it is time to have lunch at Ålö before the swim continues, this time in the direction of Utö and with an accompanying boat as an extra safety measure. After arriving, there is time to take it easy for a while. Perhaps the hot tub or sauna seems like the perfect way to spend a couple of hours? By the time the pre-dinner drinks are served, the participants are likely to have plenty to talk about and a need to share experiences. Finally, the group will have a three-course dinner at the classic Utö värdshus, where the night will also be spent – in the Kvarnvillan, to be precise.

DAY 3: A slower pace

The last day is also the quietest. After an energising breakfast buffet at Utö värdshus, an hour of morning yoga awaits. Mats then leads a hike around Utö's 15 kilometres of trails, past the old mines, along the famous beaches, the quiet pine forests and the open meadows. A coffee break is of course included in the hike. An archipelago-scented lunch is then served at Utö inn before the boat departs for Stockholm in the afternoon, with an estimated arrival time around noon.
